

A comprehensive website - www.mylicence.sa.gov.au - has been launched to help Learner, Provisional and supervising drivers understand the new rules and provide them with access to essential documentation such as the Driving Companion. It also provides a road law theory practice test and will eventually the hazard perception test.